

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Dissemination Event

Tech Law Clinics Spring School Kraków

1st of April 2022

WEBEX LINK:

<https://wpiauj.webex.com/wpiauj/j.php?MTID=mb0ee2025a855128c88424eff1a6ff512>

Morning session: 9:00–12:30

Welcome: Prof. Jerzy Pisuliński – Dean of the Jagiellonian University's Law Faculty; Prof. Piotr Tereszkiewicz

TechLaw Clinics as an Innovative Way of Teaching Law & Technology: The Ambition and Methodology of Tech Law Clinics:

- Marc Clément, Judge at the Administrative Court of Lyon
- Prof. Marjolaine Monot Fouletier, Catholic University of Lyon
- Prof. Bianca Gardella Tedeschi, Università del Piemonte Orientale, Novara
- Prof. Monika Namysłowska, University of Łódź
- Prof. Pietro Ortolani, Radboud University, Nijmegen

Insights from academics on teaching law & technology:

- Prof. Justyna Ożegalska-Trybalska, Jagiellonian University in Kraków
- Prof. Jakub Szczerbowski, University of Łódź

Insights from practitioners & regulators:

- Oskar Jedynasty, Head of Software Development & Damian Jagusz, Head of IT Compliance, ErgoHestia S.A.
- Attorney Iwona Jarosz, NASK National Research Institute

Experience of past participants:

- Stefanie Boss, Nijmegen
- Pietro Rodini, Piemonte
- Szymon Skalski, Kraków

Afternoon session: 14:00–16:3014:00–15:30 Student Teams present Proposals on How to Regulate Aspects of Law & Technology*Jurors:

- Prof. Michel Cannarsa, Dean of the Law Faculty, Catholic University of Lyon
- Prof. Radosław Flejszar, Jagiellonian University in Kraków
- Attorney Raffaele Battaglini, Futura Law Firm
- Mr Giovanni Pischedda, Torino Chamber of Commerce

15:30–16:15 Expert Talks ‘Digitalisation on the Agenda of the European Union’:

- Dr. Sina Van den Bogaert, European Commission, Brussels
- Dr. Bartłomiej Kurcz, European Commission, Brussels

16:30 Awards Ceremony

The jury gives its feedback on the proposals of each team and announces the winning team.