

Travelling between the Warsaw WMI airport and Łódź (our Faculty of Philology)

ŁÓDŹ-ZHAW DUO COLLOQUIUM ON TRANSLATION AND MEANING (UniLodz 2025)

Warsaw Modlin Airport (WMI – Wikipedia) is the second biggest airport hub closest to Warsaw, the capital city of Poland. They are ~40 km apart. The 2025 Duo Colloquium takes place in Łódź, which is a major Polish city neighbouring Warsaw. If you're travelling between Warsaw and Łódź, below you can find some useful travel tips.

1. Travelling from Warsaw (up from the WMI airport) to Łódź.

Because the WMI Airport is away from both Warsaw and Łódź, you will need to commute, e.g. via these options:

- Taxi (e.g. Taxi Modlin – 250 PLN to Warsaw Central, 700 PLN directly to Łódź) – you can book a Taxi online, or an Uber for 500 PLN from „Warsaw Modlin Airport” (WMI) to „Dworzec Łódź Fabryczna”.
- Flixbus (private company) taking you directly to Łódź (or the Warsaw West, not Warsaw Central Station). CAUTION: To get to the Flixbus from the Modlin Airport, you may need to take a bus/taxi. Here's a Google Maps route from the WMI airport to the Modlin Flixbus Terminal \(street: Wiktora Thommee 1A = 05-102 Modlin\).

Then, here's a schedule for direct Flixbus routes on 24 Sep past 4am towards Łódź Fabryczna \(see below\).

- Railway from the nearby Warsaw Modlin Station (Wikipedia). CAUTION: to get to the train from the Modlin Airport, you may need to take a bus/taxi. Here's a Google Maps route between the WMI airport and the Modlin train station \(street: Mieszka 1 = 05-102 Modlin\). Thereafter, here's a schedule for direct local trains on 24 Sep past 7am towards Warsaw Central Station. On top of departure/arrival times (and allowing you to buy tickets), this page also gives you (1) your train ID (e.g. 93118) and (2) the tentative Platform data (in 93118's case: 2).
 - CAUTION: the Platform & Track are subject to change. Once you're at the station, you'll see monitors or schedule boards all around, listing: (1) the ID of your train, (2) its corresponding most up-to-date Platform & Track, and the departure times. If you're curious, here's more information about the Warsaw Modlin Station.

When you're in Warsaw, you can take a train to Łódź, especially one from our local railway company literally called “InterCity”. We recommend the Warsaw Central Station (in Polish: Warszawa Centralna – Wikipedia). This station is well-connected with Łódź. Here's a Google Maps route between the WMI airport and the Warsaw Central Station. Here's a schedule for direct InterCity trains on 24 Sep past 11am towards Łódź Fabryczna (see below). On top of departure and arrival times (and allowing you to buy your ticket), this page also gives you the following useful data: (1) The ID of the train (e.g. 1902 InterCity) and (2) the tentative Platform and Track (in 1902's case, 3 and 2).

- CAUTION: the Platform & Track are subject to change. If you're curious, here's more information about the Warsaw Central Station and how to find the right platforms.

The destination in Łódź we recommend is the Łódź Fabryczna (Wikipedia). It is accessible and close to the UniLodz Faculty of Philology. Here's a Google Maps route between the Łódź Fabryczna train station and the Faculty. You can take a taxi or a 30-minute walk across the city. If you're staying at the UniLodz-operated CSK Hotel in Łódź, here's a Google Maps route between the Łódź Fabryczna station and our CSK Hotel. To get around the two, you can take a 15-minute walk or a taxi. You may then walk to our Faculty from the CSK Hotel: here's a Google Maps route.
