Regulation No. 70
of the UL Rector of 28 February 2022

on: special measures related to fees for educational services for students with Ukrainian citizenship in connection with actions taken by the Russian Federation towards Ukraine

Pursuant to Article 23(1) of the Act of 20 July 2018 - Law on Higher Education and Science (consolidated text, Dz. U. - Journal Of Laws of 2021, item 478, as amended) and Section (§) 25(1) of the Statute of the University of Lodz adopted by Resolution No. 440 of the Senate of the University of Lodz of 27 May 2019 (as amended), I hereby order as follows:

Section (§) 1

1. International students with Ukrainian citizenship, obliged to pay tuition fees, specified in separate regulations in force at the University of Lodz, in the amount consistent with the concluded agreement, are exempt from these fees in the amount of 3 installments due on the following dates: 28 February, 15 March and 15 April in the 2021/2022 academic year.

2. The amount of the exemption for students referred to in Section (§) 1(1), who are obliged to pay fees for a semester/year in advance, is calculated according to the following principle: the annual fee is divided equally into two semesters and then the fee for the summer semester is divided into 4 equal installments - the amount of the exemption is the sum of 3 installments for summer semester. The remainder of the fee, after deduction of the exemption, must be paid by 15 May 2022.

3. Students, referred to in Section (§) 1(1), who have already paid the fees in advance for the entire year/semester of study, are entitled to reimbursement of the fee for the academic year 2021/2022 in the amount specified in Section (§) 1(2), on the basis of the submitted declaration. Student may also submit a declaration that the overpaid amount has been credited towards the further course of studies - this rule also applies if the student fails to submit any declaration.

Section (§) 2

International students with Ukrainian citizenship who, in connection with the decree of the President of Ukraine on general military mobilisation, have interrupted their education at the University of Lodz, have the right to resume education and take examinations and obtain credits after returning to the University in the academic year 2021/2022, and if it is not possible due to the need for a proper fulfillment of the study curriculum - to obtain a conditional promotion for a semester/year or to retake a semester/year without the need to pay fees for courses subject to conditional promotion or to retake classes which they were required to complete during the mobilisation period.

Section (§) 3

1. International students with Ukrainian citizenship admitted to studies at the University of Lodz from 1 March 2022 by way of transfer from Ukrainian universities, are exempt from tuition fees for the summer semester of the 2021/2022 academic year.
2. Students referred to in Section (§) 3(1), do not pay a fee for the Polish language course organised for them by the University of Lodz.

Section (§) 4

In matters not governed by the hereby Regulation, the following provisions shall apply accordingly:
   1) Regulation No. 19 of the UL Rector of 26 October 2020 on the principles of charging and exempting from fees for educational services at the University of Lodz and
   2) Regulation No. 20 of the UL Rector of 26 October 2020 on the rules of charging and exempting people of foreign nationality from fees for educational services at the University of Lodz (as amended).

Section (§) 5

The hereby Regulation comes into force on the day of its signing.

Rector of the University of Lodz
